By David R. Poage
We as Christians focus too much on God's gift of eternal life and then expect God to bless and give in every imaginable way, ignoring how God expect us to live our Lives for Him and to sacrifice when necessary. We don't like to talk about that we are servants of God-not vice versa. Ultimately, the author lost his life, which likely would not have happened had he not devoted his full life to God. Hard to read in parts, but what really good book isn't. It's not a paper back novel or one of those "touchy feely" things many self focused religous people like to read.

An eye opening and thought provoking book. Parts of it I thought were a bit radical or to zealot and not of Gods intent(my opinion). It certainly wood be difficult to be a perfect Christian according to what the author suggests a Christian to be.

By Lorraine Iversen
Bonhoeffer was a Lutheran Pastor during the time Hitler was taking over Germany and all the other countries. He tried to warn the people but they would not listen. The cost of discipleship cost him his life in a consantration camp a short time before they were rescued. Living for the Lord will cost you something.

Shepherd's Notes- Christian Classics Series is designed to give readers a quick, step by step overview of some of the enduring treasures of the Christian faith. They are designed to be used along side the classic itself- either in individual study or in a study group. The faithful of all generations have found spiritual nourishment in the Scriptures and in the works of Christians of earlier generations. Martin Luther and John Calvin would not have become who they were apart from their reading Augustine. God used the writings of Martin Luther to move John Wesley from a religion of dead works to an experience at Aldersgate in which his "heart was strangely warmed." Shepherd's Notes will give pastors, laypersons, and students access to some of the treasures of Christian faith.
