

Christians in the Crosshairs: Persecution in the Bible and Around the World Today

Gregory C. Cochran

ebooks | Download PDF | *ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#2398410 in Books 2016-09-01 Original language: English PDF # 1 9.00 x 1.00 x 6.00l, .0 #File Name: 1941337619208 pages | File size: 71.Mb

Gregory C. Cochran : Christians in the Crosshairs: Persecution in the Bible and Around the World Today before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Christians in the Crosshairs: Persecution in the Bible and Around the World Today:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This is an amazing read. I thoroughly enjoyed it By Steven P. This is an amazing read. I thoroughly enjoyed it, and you can feel the presence of the Lord as one is reading it. Well researched, beautifully written, and makes you feel as though your there with the stories.

An insightful and (surprisingly) encouraging biblical explanation as to why trouble and persecution are inevitable for Christians. Since they are a peculiar people, and since they in the world but not of the world, and since they follow a Master who is offensive to many, Christians are naturally the objects of disdain and hostility. Understanding the nature of the enmity between the world and the Christian is critical for living in a world where Satan is its prince. The book is an attempt to start a conversation about the reality of Christian persecution. It is a wake-up call to the modern church, especially in United States. "My hope for all who read this volume," writes the author, "is a strengthened faith. One of the most surprising aspects of studying persecution has been its effect on me. I thought I would be dour and woeful-defeated-after hearing of great suffering. The opposite is true. The gospel-with its resurrection power-is able to take the worst situations and reframe them in victory. Hearing stories of triumph through suffering has been nothing short of glorious."

Finally, a book has been written to speak for those needing a voice in the American church. In this book, Greg Cochran has done a superb job of addressing Christian persecution throughout the world in a way that is clear, well-researched, biblically sound, and practically insightful. No one will be able to read this book and be unmoved by the author's powerful call to prioritize the persecuted for Christ around the world. Read this book! I dare you. Just know that you will not be the same after. Brian Croft, Senior Pastor, Auburndale Baptist Church (Louisville, KY); Founder, Practical Shepherding (<http://practicalshepherding.com>); Senior Fellow, Church Revitalization Center, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Greg Cochran is my friend and he was my pastor for nine years. He has given more thought to the issue of the persecuted church than any other one hundred Christians I know combined. This book is a distillation of much of that thought. If youre skimming this endorsement to determine if you want to read the book, please allow me to offer a suggestion. Read the story of Sister Yuen in the Introduction. If that doesnt open your heart to be concerned about the issue discussed in this book then you should pray for the Lord to help you with your hardness of heart. Donald S. Whitney, Professor of Biblical Spirituality; The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (www.biblicalspirituality.org) Persecution lies in the context of much of the Scriptures, and persecution emerges as a significant theme throughout the biblical story. Persecution also remains the daily reality for millions of Christians, and is in some sense the experience of all Christians. Christians in the Crosshairs: Persecution in the Bible and around the World Today sheds biblical, theological, missional, and practical light on this difficult but awe-inspiring theme of persecution. Clear, edifying, thoughtful, and mature, this book is based on years of research, teaching, pastoral ministry, and praying about persecution. Even more, it is important for understanding the Bible, persecution, the church, our mission, the culture, and ourselves. Chris Morgan, Dean and Professor of Theology; California Baptist University About the Author Gregory C. Cochran (Ph.D., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary), after writing his dissertation on persecution, now serves as Associate Professor of Theology in the School of Christian Ministries at California Baptist University as well as its director of the Applied Theology program. He has written many articles on persecution and hosts a popular blog at GregoryCCochran.com.