It does make 2 extremely important points By Walter R. Nagel The harmonization is in a somewhat different order than I would have liked. It does make 2 extremely important points, however -- the reformation of the early to mid-17th century, that most people have some cognizance of, didn't come out of nowhere; its foundation was much earlier. And, the reformers, over more than a century, were consistent in their thoughts of what scripture teaches.

In one convenient, parallel arrangement, Drs. Beek and Ferguson have harmonized seven important Reformed confessions that have never before been published together.

A helpful tool for ministers, scholars, church leaders, and all who love the Reformed faith. -- R. C. Sproul
