From Adams Jonathan : The Jewish-Christian Encounter in Medieval Preaching (Routledge Research in Medieval Studies) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Jewish-Christian Encounter in Medieval Preaching (Routledge Research in Medieval Studies):

This book explores the complexity of preaching as a phenomenon in the medieval Jewish-Christian encounter. This was not only an "encounter" as physical meeting or confrontation (such as the forced attendance of Jews at Christian sermons that took place across Europe), but also an "imaginary" or theological encounter in which Jews remained a figure from a distant constructed time and place who served only to underline and verify Christian teachings. Contributors also explore the Jewish response to Christian anti-Jewish preaching in their own preaching and religious instruction.

About the Author Jonathan Adams is Reader and Academy Researcher for the Royal Swedish Academy of Letters, History and Antiquities in the Department of Scandinavian Languages, Uppsala University. Jussi Hanska is a lecturer in the Department of History at the University of Tampere.
