If you're a nerd like myself, it is definitely a fun read.I love the humor alongside the seriousness that Dr. Varner injects. He did an excellent job putting this text together.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A must read to know the Messiah as a reference to the Bible.By Jay RubinThis is a must read for just about everyone. I dreaded reaching the end of the book. I learned so much. I am a Jew that is a born again Christian. The parts related to the Talmud made me uneasy. I enjoyed this book so much I plan to give it to the people I take through the Partners Discipleship program at my church. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Book! By C. Seitz This is a really great book! It sheds light on how the Old Testament points to the Messiah of the New Testament. It is well-written, easy to read, and important for a clear understanding of the Bible. I highly recommend it.

A mysterious figure called the "Messiah" is the central theme of the entire Bible. In this book that Messianic theme is traced from its announcement in the Old Testament through its development between the Testaments to its fulfillment in the New Testament. The book also examines how Jews and Christians have continued to debate this subject down until today. There are also some studies on fascinating related subjects like the location of the Temple and the ashes of the Red Heifer. While these chapters have been written from a Christian perspective, adequate attention has also been given to Jewish concerns. The Messiah was successively revealed, rejected and received. This book explains how and why that happened. "In this book, Will Varner has opened the Scripture to provide a readable, clarifying look at Jesus, the Messiah of Israel and the Savior of the world. Jesus once asked His disciples, "Who do men say that I am? (Mark 8:27). That is still the most urgent question - who is this Jesus? You will find the answer powerfully and convincingly provided in this outstanding book. John MacArthur, Grace Community Church, Sun Valley, CA and President of The Master's College
