Goncalves Very good information, with lots of pictures. Highly recommended. American's History needs to be radically rewritten. These giant human civilizations in North America are totally suppressed from mainstream culture and "education" (read filtered and controlled indoctrination, shallow and without proper context). We need more researchers like Fritz Zimmerman, Michael Cremona, Frank Joseph and other mavericks. This book should be bought with "A Travel Guide to the Ancient Ruins in the Ohio Valley", from the same author, and also part of his "The Nephilim Chronicles" series. If we want a better understanding of ourselves, the "Historical Key" has the same importance as the "Mythical Key", "Symbolic Key", "Metaphysical Key", "Archaeological Key" and "Psychological Key". All these "Keys" or Perspectives go together. If we don't know our

REAL past, out time-lines (individually and socially), where did we live , how much we knew of "reality" (in the biggest sense of this word, accomodating much perspectives as possible) and how much do we know now (Let us not forget that there are many groups of influence in our culture that take profit from dumbing down education, filling the media with trash and low-quality entertainment and "vomiting trivia and gossip 24/7" just to keep our attention dispersed with useless information) then possibly we won't know with clarity and perspective how much do we have to go to restore precious knowledge taken away, filtered and distorted by the main institutions that control society on it's many levels. Don't miss this book!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Interesting book.By CustomerI found this book really interesting, With all the Sky sun father /earth mother features incorporated into the megalithic structures around the world from Stonehenge to the ones of the Ohio valley, it is fascinating to think that the Phonecians / Canaanites expelled by Joshua from the promised land and the obvious builders of these circles, henges and mounds, were descended from fallen angels (Sky father) and daughters of man (earth mother) .Of course you have to have faith and belief in the bible to accept this fact but the descendants of the nephalim who were dispersed by Joshua left monuments to their lineage throughout the landscapes of the ancient world. On top of all the other features such as advanced mathematics, precise astronomical alignments , old myths about Giants connected to their construction etc it is very obvious who builders of these monuments were. They could be no one else.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Informational shotgunBy CustomerI haven't finished this book yet to be fair, but my enthusiasm for it waned quite a bit as i discovered that it is seemingly a unorganized series of data captures from mostly old newspaper clippings and other sources. Things about finding Giant skeletons and remains and such. I see little so far in the book tying it in with the concept of fallen angels, so far anyway...
